

Harbor General Hospital Kiddies Note Halloween

Halloween was celebrated Monday in the children's ward at Harbor General Hospital when Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters, chairmaned by Mrs. M. McMahon were hostesses at a party assisted by the recently organized "Volunteers for Children." Mrs. Charles Allen and Mrs. P. V. Clayton entertained the children in Ward C8, with Halloween favors, ice cream and cookies. The Volunteers had made favors for all the children.

This new organization now has 92 members who are working on specified shifts at the hospital assisting with the care and entertainment of children patients.

On Wednesday evening of last week, Mrs. John Stoddard conducted a business meeting attended by 52 volunteers. Talks were made by A. L. Thomas, director of the hospital, and Mrs. E. G. McAllister, coordinator.

New uniforms for the volunteers were chosen and other business was transacted.

Music Topic At Nursery School Meet

At the Monday night potluck of the Torrance Cooperative Nursery School the guest speaker was Irene Bland, professor of Eurythmics at the University of Southern California. She was introduced by Mrs. Myrtle Barter, school director.

Mrs. Bland's talk was on "musical awareness through body movements and the mastering of good listening habits. Eurythmics is the learning of music through coordination of tonal and rhythmic experience. Mrs. Bland conducts classes for the preschooler and starts them at 4 years of age.

When a child can feel changes in the rhythm and it is sometimes as long as a year, they begin to learn about musical notes and their values, the speaker told her audience.

In closing, Mrs. Bland encouraged each individual to literally have a song in his heart and to bring this song or music to the children each and every day, whether the child is working or playing.

A short business meeting followed. Parents interested in enrolling their children in the nursery should contact Mrs. Don Hughes.

The Wicks will meet Friday, Nov. 18, at 4 p.m., at the church. Hostesses will be Janice Jackson and Kaaren Crist.

Pine Circle, Mrs. Milton Huber, leader, will meet Tuesday, Nov. 22, with Mrs. Norman Lamping, 1737 Martina.

Torrance Women to Receive First News of New Makeup

Mrs. Ruth Davis, who has been in the beauty business since 1933 and who recently opened her own cosmetic shop, 1415 Marcellina, will be hostess to Torrance women tomorrow at her salon, when she presents a representative of a cosmetic firm who brings the news of a new makeup cream recently created in Denmark. The something new in makeup is the Day Dew makeup by Anita d'Foged.

RUTH DAVIS... Cosmetologist

For over eight years Mrs. Davis was employed in the cosmetic department of a local drug store. She is a certified consultant having graduated from the Chicago Beauty Fashion School.

"This new makeup is one of the most fascinating I've seen," said Mrs. Davis. "No powder is needed and the colors are so artistically blended that when you apply the cream it blends so perfectly that you will never have that artificial 'Make-up' look. It seemingly gives your face a lift, bathing it in aura of colors, blended to suit the individual needs. It is important that you select the shade that will bring out the truly sparkling vibrant you."

Mrs. Davis pointed out in discussing the new product.

In addition to inviting all women of the area to visit her shop anytime Friday, Mrs. Davis has arranged to present each with a gift of perfume.

the elective officers and the following appointed officers, at 8 o'clock in the evening before a capacity crowd in the temple. Seated were: Shirley Beetz, Warden; Dona Nelson, conductor; Ellen Smith, chaplain; Ruth Deems, musician; Angelina Disario, color bearer; Olive Veatch, right supporter to the Noble Grand; Irma Powers, left supporter to the Noble Grand; Retta Nelson, right supporter to the vice Grand; Francis Branagh, left supporter to the vice Grand; Edna Ferrin, inside guardian; Inez Covich, outside guardian; right and left altar bearers, Naomi Doak and Lillian Blackman. Four banner bearers, Mary Fine, Stella Norris, Madeline Hand and Alice Jennings.

Honored guests introduced from the platform were Agnes Altnordhoff, vice president, Florence B. Bonetto and Dorothea N. Martin past president, Lorna Roberson, color bearer, all from the Rebekah Assembly of Calif., also visiting committee members and District Deputy Presidents.

Mrs. Vash presented Mrs. Altnordhoff with a monetary gift made into the form of a horseshoe. The District Deputy President and her marshals were presented monetary gifts in wagons hitched to a star carrying out Mrs. Grause's theme for the year. The new lodge was presented many lovely gifts from various groups of the order.

Refreshments of cake and coffee were served in the dining room by Alice Jennings and her committee at the conclusion of the evening.

The Torrance Rebekahs will meet the second and fourth Wednesdays at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple. The District Deputy President Mrs. Grause will make her official visit Nov. 9. Retta Nelson is chairman for that evening.
